Major analysis of Alumni feedback (Session 2023-24)

Strong Points-

- Classrooms & Laboratories

The college's infrastructure, especially classrooms and laboratories, has received the highest satisfaction rating. This suggests that students found the academic environment conducive to learning, with well-maintained and adequately equipped facilities. The availability of modern equipment and ample space likely enhanced the overall learning experience. Continued investment in maintenance and upgrades will help retain this strength.

- Library Resources

Alumni expressed high satisfaction with the library facilities. This includes availability of books, digital resources, and access to reference materials. The high rating implies efficient library management and relevance of resources to academic needs. Enhancing access to e-resources and expanding the collection further could bring additional value,

- IT Infrastructure

Strong IT infrastructure plays a vital role in modern education. The college's provision of computer labs, internet access, and digital tools has been positively reviewed. This indicates a robust support system for online learning and research. Keeping software and systems updated will help maintain this edge.

- Alumni Network Strength

Alumni feel connected and value the effectiveness of the alumni network. This reflects wall on the institution's efforts to build and maintain relationships post-graduation. A strong alumni bone also helps in mentoring, placements, and institutional development. Expanding this network internationally can further benefit current students.

- Pedagogical Methods

Students appreciated the teaching methodologies adopted by the faculty. Use of practical demonstrations, group discussions, and case studies may have contributed to this rating. Effective pedagogy ensures better understanding and retention of knowledge. Regular training for faculty to explore innovative teaching techniques could enhance this further.

- Support for Students with Disabilities

The college's support systems for students with disabilities are well-rated. This includes accessibility, personalized support, and inclusive facilities. Such initiatives demonstrate the institution's commitment to equity and diversity; Continued development of assistive technologies and inclusive policies will reinforce this strength.

Areas to Focus On-

- Career Awareness

Alumni felt that the college could do more to prepare them for employment. The gap may be due to limited industry exposure, outdated curriculum, or insufficient soft skills training. To address this, the college should collaborate with industry partners for internships, workshops, and career-readiness programs. Strengthening placement services will also boost outcomes.

- Further Education Preparation

This rating suggests room for improvement in academic rigor and research opportunities. Alumni may have faced challenges in pursuing higher studies due to lack of mentorship or preparation for competitive exams. Introducing dedicated support for entrance exams and research methodology training can enhance academic progression.

- Academic & Personal Counselling

Counselling services were rated poorly, indicating insufficient availability or quality. Students may have lacked access to trained counsellors or found the guidance generic. Establishing a structured counselling cell with regular student interaction, career guidance, and personal well-being support is necessary for holistic development.

- Health & Wellness Services

This is signalling a lack of attention to student wellness. Alumni may have experienced inadequate medical facilities, lack of awareness programs, or delayed response to health concerns. Introducing on-campus health centres, regular check-ups, and mental health workshops can drastically improve student experience.

- Hostel/PG & Cafeteria Facilities

This is the weakest area, as college don't have in house hostel facility.
